Re: Scientology v. Armstrong
Case No. C 420 153

Dear Mr. Randolph:

This is to confirm my telephone call to you yesterday wherein I notified you that due to prior plans/commitments, I am unable to attend the deposition scheduled for March 25 and March 26, 1986. It is impossible for me to to reschedule my prior plans, because the week of March 24 through March 28 is the Spring break from school and is the only time I'll be able to go out of town.

I understand that Ms. Dragojevic, Gerald Armstrong's attorney, also cannot be present on March 25 and March 26 and has requested a continuation of this deposition.

I am available for deposition on April 4 and 7, 1986, or April 11 and 14, 1986, whichever would be more convenient for you and Ms. Dragojevic. Please do check your calendar as you agreed to do during our telephone conversation and let me know. If none of these dates work, I certainly will be most cooperative in arriving at mutually agreeable dates.

Thank you for your anticipated professional courtesy and cooperation.

Sincerely,

Jocelyn Armstrong
